“ One particular memory I have of Joanne and Julian was on those occasions when we saw them at McGinn's Irish Pub on Charles Street in Baltimore where they, like Jack and I, were thoroughly enjoying the rousing Irish music. Please be aware that our hearts are heavy as we offer our condolences. May she rest in peace.

“ Tim and family my heart goes out to you all at this difficult time. Deepest sympathy, my thoughts and prayers to you all. Mrs. Joanne raised three great kids and now God needed her to be with him. She is in a much better place and at peace now with Julian and family and friends in heaven.
