“ Bobby was an honest, sincere, and true person. He was an athlete who I remember excelling and being an integral part of a soccer group at Liberty High. As time went by In my mind Bobby will be remembered as a Husband, father, and overall top shelf person. Rest In Peace

“ Bobby was an incredible friend and an overall great guy. His smile lit up a room. All the years we played soccer together from high school to adult amateur leagues, he always was a great teammate. For me he always was my calming influence as sometimes my competitive juices got the best of me. He was always fun to be around and will be surely missed. Prayers to Jill and the kids.

“ I never met Bobby but had prayed for him and his family and I am so very sorry. I'm an 83 year old TEXAN and I pray Our Lord will give you strength and comfort for this sad time. But think of how it is for Bobby right now! He is more alive than ever, free of pain and in the JOY of his LORD. Of course you miss him and you need to grieve, but remember happy memories and that this is only a parting. Y'all will see him again.
Shalom and blessings.
