“ Rob, I am sure going to miss you. If I ever needed anything, you always offered to help.

When you and Wes would go out for breakfast, you always asked if I wanted something brought back....very thoughtful of you. But that's that way you were, thoughtful and a good friend. We would joke about keeping Wes "out of my hair" for as long as possible on these "breakfast" days. You would say, "I did the best I could". I will miss our "crab eating" times together. You left so suddenly, but I am grateful you did not suffer much physical pain. You are where you've wanted to be ever since Theresa passed....right by her side again. Hallelujah! Amen! Houston will miss her "Uncle Rob" too.

Love and Hugs from Gini and Houston, too!

“ If I could write a story
It would be the greatest ever told
Of a kind and loving Father
Who had a heart of Gold

I could write a million pages
But still be unable to say just how Much I love and miss him
Every single day.

I will remember all he taught me.
I'm hurt but wont be sad
Because he'll send me down the answers
And he'll always be my dad
