“ Terri and I met years ago at the Senior Center when I was rebuilding our Canasta group after players either moved away or died. For quite a while Terri and I only had each other, but we were determined to get it going again. We became friends immediately, having such similar life experiences despite very different backgrounds. We became very close and she was the sister I never had. Our group grew and Terri and I were blessed to be able to help and nurture others through the years. She was a “people person” who could always be counted on in so many ways. She had a wealth of experience in so many areas that anyone could draw on when needed. When medical caught up with me, Terri was there. We were both “drivers” most of our lives and when I was overdosed with a medication after surgery that made me have to stop driving for a while, Terry drove me to my appointments at Mercy. During the times I needed to find doctors in areas I was unfamiliar with, she helped me choose good ones because she had knowledge of many of them in the Mercy system. When COVID got to my husband just before everything was shut down and we had the past nightmare year of way too much isolation and no Senior Center, Terri would call and check on me and we would have wonderful conversations. It was so much fun when we compared our grandkids and the opportunities they provided us for laughter. I feel like I know her grandchildren. I feel extremely blessed for having had her in my life as long as I did. I miss her very much. My heart and prayers reach out for Jim and his loss. I know how very, very close they are. He is a wonderful man and I pray for God to watch over him during this sad time of life, as well as the children and grandchildren.

“ I first met Terri at the Westminster Senior Center and have had the pleasure of knowing her for over three years. She and her husband, Jim, welcomed me in their home on numerous occasions. I especially enjoyed seeing how she decorated her home beautifully for each season and holiday. Terri enjoyed baking and shared both cakes and cookies with me. We engaged in wonderful conversations about our pasts as well as current events. I will miss her. God keep you close Terri! B. Abel-Steinberg

“ Terri and I shared a single room at the old St Joseph hospital in freshman year. We would pull out a folding bed for her at night. During the day we would race up to our room to see who got the bed for a nap. I was a bridesmaid at your wedding. Terri and I also were friends in high school and would visit back and forth. Great memories. RIP

“ Thank you Terri and Jim, a wonderful couple always willing to help. Always delighted to see Terri with Jim at Church of the Ascension events, particularly The Mistletoe Mart. Together, they would volunteer to sell tickets at the door. Always willing, and always smiling. Terri will be missed by her church family. My thoughts and prayers to Jim and the family as they make this transition to the years ahead without Terri.

“ Ms. Terri and Mr. Jim have been my parents' neighbors for as long as I can remember. We loved sharing fruits and vegetables from our garden along with my late father's homemade jams. And if I ever forgot my house key when in middle school I would go over and spend time with Ms. Terri. I will always remember her kindness and shall never forget the multitude of unicorns that she collected. I was happy she and Mr. Jim were able to celebrate our wedding together and glad I got to see her a couple years ago after having moved away.

“ I grew up with Terri when we both lived on Chapelgate Lane. We spent many a day playing in the "secret cave" with all the other neighborhood kids. So many happy memories of that time.

My deepest sympathy to her family.

“ Deeply saddened to hear about Terri's departure from this life. She was a wonderful lady; always willing and ready to help. Only a few weeks after starting to attend our church, she offered to bring First Aid & CPR training to our staff and volunteers on site in order to keep it affordable. We were able to train everyone who needed to. She was a very kind and patient trainer. She also organized our church trip to the Bible Museum in D.C. which I very much enjoyed. She volunteered with many other activities. I will most remember her for her resilient faith in the face of sickness. I was honored to be her pastor. May her soul, with all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. And may God the source of all comfort grant Jim and the family the grace and strength to carry them through these difficult days.

“ Jim and family, it was always a treat to see you and Terri at church. May God send angels to comfort you at this time. Our prayers are with you.

“ I worked with Terri at Mercy. She was a competent nurse and the NICU babies were always in good hands. I loved her acerbic wit that always kept me laughing. And her IV skills were the best in the unit. If you had trouble inserting your IV, she was the one you called. RIP Terri, you deserve it.

Julia Ruzin - April 18 at 10:43 AM

“ Terri was one of my closet friends. We worked together @ Mercy. She and I went to lunch often before COVID-19. One of my favorite memories was attending craft fairs with her and her husband Jim. Terri loved to peruse earrings and scarves. Rest In Peace my dear Friend. I will miss you and treasure all my memories of our times together.

Dot Mundy - April 17 at 06:25 PM

“ I worked with Terri in the NICU and she was always particular about the way things should be done. I worked nights, and never wanted to leave my supply box untidy for Terri if she was taking over my babies! . God bless you Terri. Have fun with all the ladies up there already from the NICU. Such a special group.
